The first part is the power optimizer, which handles DC to DC and optimizes or conditions the solar panel's power. There is one power optimizer per solar panel, and they keep the flow of energy equal. For example, with a standard string inverter, if one solar panel produces less energy, all the solar panels in that string will produce less energy.

Types of Inverters. There are several types of inverters that might be installed as part of a solar system. In a large-scale utility plant or mid-scale community solar project, every solar panel might be attached to a single central inverter. String inverters connect a set of panels--a string--to one inverter. That inverter converts the power produced by the entire string to AC.
