

Can solar power save money in Zambia?

With its year-round sunshine and geographical location, Zambia is well positioned to integrate solar power into its energy mix dominated by climate-vulnerable hydropower. "The Scaling Solar Project will make Zambia save significant amounts of money in the long run," said Ina Ruthenberg, World Bank Country Manager for Zambia.

Will Zambia's hydro-based power plants help curb power shortages?

Zambia's Minister of Energy, Mathew Nkhosha, said the projects will not only curb power shortages and provide a source of energy that complements Zambia's hydro-based system, they "will allow the government of Zambia to reduce its electricity purchase from expensive diesel power plants."

How much will Zambia save from hydropower plants?

Based on initial assumptions, Zambia's savings over the first 25 years would be about $163 million per 50 MW power plant. The first two plants will increase the country's available generating capacity by 5% and will help restore water levels in its hydropower dams.
